Affidavit of Non-Consent to Contract

Let it be known and entered into the living record that I, jonathan-daniel: clements, a living man upon the land, do hereby give formal notice that I do not consent, and have never consented, to any contract, statute, code, act, or regulation not entered into knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally.

All presumptions of consent through silence, inaction, adhesion, or legal fiction are hereby rebutted and nullified.

I do not consent to:
- Any implied contracts via birth certificate, Social Security Number, or state identification
- Any statutory jurisdiction not based in voluntary ecclesiastical agreement
- Any corporate representation, suretyship, or assumption of debt or liability

All such presumptions are void ab initio and without lawful merit.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.

: Rebuttal to Dead-at-Sea Presumption

Let the record reflect that I, jonathan-daniel: clements, am alive, competent, sentient, and present upon the land.
Any presumption that I am "dead at sea", lost, missing, or a ward of the state is hereby rebutted with prejudice.

I reject and nullify any maritime or admiralty jurisdiction unless contracted into knowingly and with full disclosure.

This affidavit stands as rebuttal to:
- Any claims of legal fiction or corporate personhood
- Any assumption that my estate is unclaimed or in abeyance
- Any record of abandonment or commercial surety

I am the living principal, executor, and sole beneficiary of my estate and trust.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority. No witness required.
